I've decided to move to London. Joel Are you serious? Why? London is dirty and polluted! Grace Well, I know what you mean but London's a really exciting place. There are more opportunities in London. Joel That's true but in my opinion it's dangerous, not exciting. Grace I really don't think so, I've been to London lots of times. I think it's a safe place, just as safe as here. Joel You're definitely wrong there! Have you been reading the news? Grace Look, London is a big place, there are more people so more stuff happens. Joel You're absolutely right! Bad stuff! And what about ... pollution? No forests, no lakes, no hills – just ugly grey buildings. Grace I'm sorry but I completely disagree – there are lots of parks in London and green spaces. It's a very green city, certainly not all grey buildings. Joel OK, you've got a point, but I still think London is a really bad idea. Grace Well, I don't think so. You can't change my mind by disagreeing with me. Joel How can I change your mind? Please please don't go, Grace! Say you'll stay! Please, please!	Script [1.17] Grace Joel, listen I've been thinking ... Joel Oh yes? Grace Yes, I've been thinking a lot about it and ... 29	Unit 2	音声[1.20]	Script [1.20] Interv. How long have you been living in Turkey, Megan? Megan I've been living here for three years now. Interv. Why did you decide to come to Turkey? Megan I wanted to learn about Turkey, the life style, the people and culture and really understand what it's like to live in another country all the time, not just for a holiday. So I applied for a job as an English teacher in Turkey. Interv. Have you always lived in Kaş? Megan No, I haven't. When I first came to Turkey, I worked in Istanbul for a year. Interv. Did you like Istanbul? Megan Well, it's beautiful and I loved visiting all the famous places such as the blue Mosque, but I didn't like living there. In winter it was freezing, and in summer it was too hot. I don't like big cities. I prefer smaller towns and beaches. Interv. What were your first impressions of Kaş? Megan When I first saw the town at the bottom of the mountains I was astonished – it is so beautiful! Also, I love swimming and walking, so this area is perfect for me – the sea and the mountains ... In my opinion, the Kaş is one of the most beautiful places in the world. Interv. What do you think of the food? Megan I love it! Before I came here I only knew dishes like kebabs and baklava! In fact the food in Kaş is quite different, but it's still delicious! Interv. What are your favourite dishes? Megan I love lahmacun – a type of thin pizza with meat – and I adore börek! Interv. Is there any food you don't like? Megan Yes, there is – kokoreç! I tried it just once. Interv. What is it? Megan It's made from the heart and stomach of a sheep. We don't eat anything similar in England! Interv. What about the people? What are your impressions of them? Megan I think people in this region are quiet, and reserved. It takes time to get to know them, but I've got a lot of friends here now. Interv. Can you speak Turkish? Megan When I arrived, I couldn't speak it at all, but I have been studying and practising it all the time. I'm still not fluent ... Interv. But you've been having lessons ... Megan Yes, I have! I'm getting better every day! Interv. Great!	Script [1.20] Interv.
